INFIELDERS BOOT GAME OFF

Pick and Kneaves Hand it to Lincoln in Eighth.

TWO BINGLES HELP ANTELOPES

Omahoga Make a Desperate Rally in Ninth, but Second is as Far as Man Gets-Score is 4 to 3

is Favor of Lincoln.

Two errors, one by Kneaves and the other by Pick, and two hits, all in the eighth, won the last game of the series r Lincoln by a score of 4 to 2 yesterday afternoon. It was all Rhodes until the eighth inning, when poor support unsettled him and the game slipped away.

Omaha played a stellar game until the fatal eighth. Not an error had been made and the batting was all to the good. Rhodes had pitched classy ball and held the Antelopes to four hits, two decidedly

A three-run lead was credited to the Rourkes when the Lincolnites went to bat in the seventh. A double to left, backed with a long fly and another bingle brought the first run across the pan for the Antelopes. This taste only whetted the appetite of the Lincoln bunch and Unglaub got so fussy in his excitement that he talked too much and was ordered off Aside from the defeat, good and inside base ball held away throughout the nine innings. Clever play by the infielders of both teams featured the fracas and the fans were treated to a good game.

Omaha did not play as good base ball on the bases as the Antelopes or the game would have ended with the Rourkes top. The eleven hits made by the Colts were useless in nearly every inning. Unglaub placed Wolverton on the firing line and Stratton on the receiving end and and instead of getting into the game himself, put Dundon on second. Wolverton was found freely by the Rourkes, but the hits were kept scattered.

Omaha First to Score.

Omaha scored the first run of the game in the second. King tripled to center and scored on Kneaves' hit to left. Pick opened the third inning for the Rourkes by hitting safely past first. He took second on on Niehoff's sizzier through Gagnier. In the fifth Williams tripled to left and scored on Nichoff's hit past Thomas.

Lincoln made the first score in the seventh. Cobb doubled to left and was advanced to third by Milier, who flew out to King. He scored when Thomas hit safely past third. In the eighth, Gagnier got a life when Kneaves booted his stiff grounder. He took second on Dundon's single to left., Both men remped home when Cola laced one out to right field for three bases. Core scored when Pick W. Miller, p. made a poor throw of Cobb's grounder. M. Miller, c. ..

Maryville has one of the best road clubs in the Mink leasue. No matter what its trubles are, it is going just the same, with the same pepper as if it had no accidents and was winning. Since the season opened its catcher, Dietz, had a finger broken; Wentz, the third baseman, was hit on the right elbow, and Outfielder Cook had a bone in his right arm splintered by a wild pitch. Both Cook and Wentz led the league hitting last season. So it is easy to see why Maryville is losing.

In the Wake of the Measles.

The little son of Mrs. O. B. Palmer.
Little Rock, Ark., rad the measles. The result was a severe cough which grew worse and he could not sleep. She says:
"One bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound completely cured him and he has never been bothered since." Croup.
